Travel all over the countryside...

Jerusalem through the ages – 3000 years in a day

- Meet in morning by Jaffa Gate
- Rampart Walk – See Jerusalem from the top of the Old City walls and experience this unique perspective of Israel's capital city.
- Mt Zion – Coenaculum – A microcosm of the worlds' 3 main religions, here we'll see what is believed to be the 'Upper Room' where the Last supper occurred, check out a breathtaking rooftop view and visit what many believe to be King David's tomb – all in the same building complex!
- Broad Wall – We'll check out the excavated section of a wall built by King Hezekiya against the Assyrian siege by Sancherib and dated back to over 2700 years ago!!!
- Cardo – Jerusalem's main street over 1800 years ago which stretched from Damascus gate in the north to Zion Gate in the south. What was the main thoroughfare of Roman/Byzantine Aelia Capatolina is now a key attraction in the Old city.
-  Kotel & Tunnel Tour – The holiest site in the world for Jews! Here we'll discuss the 2nd Temple and the final days of Jewish sovereignty for 2000 years. Then we'll head underground to walk the length of the Western wall of the Temple Mount, built by King Herod.
- Christian & Muslim Quarters – The Via Delarosa / 'Way of the Cross'; the final path of Jesus on his way to crucifixion and the Holy Sepulcher Church has long been a major pilgrimage sites for Christians of all types from all around the world. We'll weave our way in and out of both the Muslim and Christian quarters as we experience the sights, sounds, smells and spirit of the cohesive relationship between the worlds 3 main religions.
- Rooftop view of Temple Mount – We'll conclude our day with a stunning view, looking east over the Temple Mount.
- Walk to Jaffa gate/ Mamilla Mall – End Tour
